

Bridging Loan Underwriting Process

5th June 2023

For Intermediaries Only

Non-Regulated Bridging Process

1. The Enquiry

You can submit a bridging loan case to us in a way that suits you. Either fill in our quick enquiry form online, drop us an email, or chat the case through with your BDM. Our dynamic New Business Team will then be in touch with your client's indicative terms within the hour.

2. The Offer

If your client is happy with the terms provided, please complete our simple enquiry form, and return to the New Business Team for review. If acceptable, we usually provide an Offer in Principle (OIP) within 2 business hours of receiving the enquiry form. If your client wishes to proceed, have them sign the OIP and send it back to us. Please provide any supporting documentation requested and access details for the valuation. The valuation fee will be confirmed, usually by email, and prompt payment of this will enable us to proceed immediately.

3. The Valuation

We will instruct a RICs surveyor from our panel to value all properties offered as security for the loan. Valuation reports are typically produced within 3-5 business days of inspection, though times may vary for more complex properties. Whilst we wait for the valuation report, we will need your client's solicitor details (must be a two-SRA partner firm).

4. The Legals

We will send your client's solicitor our checklist of requirements. Please ensure your client's solicitor knows what to expect beforehand. Your client's solicitor will need to confirm instruction to us and that they are holding funds in readiness to provide the costs of undertaking to our solicitors. If the valuation report comes back acceptable for the loan to proceed on the terms agreed, we will confirm this and issue the mortgage deed for signature.

5. Funds Released

Once our solicitor is in receipt of all satisfactory replies and the supporting documentation requested, we are ready to go! Within 24 hours of receipt of the report on title, we arrange the transfer of funds to your client's solicitor. We will also pay your proc fee within 24 hours of completion.

Regulated Bridging Process

1. The Enquiry

You can submit a bridging loan case to us in a way that suits you. Either fill in our quick enquiry form online, drop us an email, or chat the case through with your BDM. Our dynamic New Business Team will then be in touch with your client's indicative terms within the hour.

2. The Application

Once the completed application form has been received, our underwriting team will review the content, assessing the transaction's viability from the information provided. At this point we will also undertake an Equifax search on your client(s) and submit an ONFIDO request for your client(s) to confirm their identity – you will receive an email notification confirming when this has been sent to your client(s) for completion. Please note, the Equifax search will not be used for the purpose of credit scoring.

3. The Legals

Once our underwriters have approved your client's application to proceed, we'll provide you with an offer pack containing the Loan Contract, Mortgage Illustration, and our Terms and Conditions for your client's perusal - we usually provide this offer pack within two business hours of receiving the completed application form. Your client will be required to satisfy any conditions set out within the Loan Contract, and provide any documentation requested, along with a signed copy of the Loan Contract.

The valuation fee will be confirmed, usually by email, and prompt payment of this will enable us to proceed immediately.

4. The Valuation

Upon receipt of the valuation fee, we will instruct a RICS surveyor from our panel to value all properties offered as security for the loan – the valuation report is typically produced within 3 business days of inspection. Once the valuation has been received, we will assess the report, confirming the property is suitable security and its value is appropriate for the loan to proceed. If any issues are raised, we will discuss these with you to gain comfort or confirm the acceptable lending level.

5. The Solicitors

We will send your client's solicitor our Checklist of Requirements. Please ensure your client's solicitor knows what to expect beforehand so that all parties can move quickly. Your client's solicitor will also need to confirm instructions to us and that they are holding funds in readiness to provide the costs undertaking to our solicitors (who will be appointed by us thereafter).

Our solicitor will then work with your client's solicitor to satisfy the Checklist of Requirements as quickly as possible and will provide the Legal Charge and Mortgage Deed for signature. Once satisfied, our solicitor will provide us with a Report on Title to review in readiness for completion.

6. Final Checks and Binding Offer

Now all underwriting and legal requirements have been satisfied, we will undertake a final completion call with your client(s). Once satisfied, the underwriter will issue the Binding Offer. Your client will have 7 days to reflect on this offer, during which time we will not contact your client unless they waive their reflection period. Your client can accept the Binding Offer at any time during these 7 days by instructing their solicitor to give us notification of their acceptance of the Binding Offer.

7. Funds Released

All points have now been satisfied and your client has accepted the Binding Offer, we will arrange for funds to be released in readiness for completion - we will usually require 24 hours' notice for the release. We will also pay your proc fee within 24 hours of completion.
